

Go Tigers! Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

The Go Tigers! Scholarship provides a graduating IFHS senior up to $2,000 for tuition and fees after federal grants at any accredited university, community college, or technical school.

ELIGIBILITY

To qualify for this scholarship, students must meet 3 criteria:

- 1) The applicant must be a graduating senior from Idaho Falls High School
- 2) The applicant must have a desire to attend an accredited university, community college or technical school
- 3) The applicant must demonstrate financial need

APPLICATION

To apply, students must submit the following:

- a) A completed application with parent or guardian signature
- b) Student Aid Report from FASFA
- c) AND prepare for an in-person interview. (Interviews will be held in early May. The interview will include questions about the applicant's future education plans)

SELECTION

Eligible applicants will be evaluated based on their financial need and interview.

DUE DATE

Applications are available from the Idaho Falls High School counseling office, from IFHS' college and career advisor and from the D91 Ed Foundation website. Applications are due April 21, 2023. They may be turned in to a high school guidance counselor or counseling office no later than the close of school on April 21, 2023 or to the D91's District Office no later than 4:30 pm on April 21, 2023.

Please Note: Awards will be paid directly to the training program, college or university. Scholarships are awarded in May for use in the following fall, winter, spring or summer semesters. If a recipient CANNOT use the scholarship within that timeframe, they MUST request a formal deferment by emailing edfoundation@sd91.org by April 1 of the following year. If they DO NOT request a deferment, they will lose the scholarship.
